NEW LOCATION ANNOUNCED BY MANISTEE COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Manistee, Michigan – The Manistee County Community Foundation (MCCF), dedicated to building charitable funds to support the betterment of Manistee County, will have a new office location beginning April 1, 2009.

The address for the new location is 332 First Street, Suite 104, Manistee, Michigan 49660, in the Huntington National Bank Building in downtown Manistee. Foundation hours are Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. or by appointment. The phone number for the Foundation is unchanged: (231) 723-7269.

“We are delighted to find office space that supports our renewed focus on connecting community partners and donors with the current and future needs of Manistee County,” said Laura Heintzelman, Executive Director of the Foundation. “One of many advantages of our recent affiliation with the Community Foundation for Muskegon County was that it provided us with administrative support, allowing us to downsize our office space. This is part of our continued strategy to reduce our operating costs and leverage expertise so that we can maximize the community impact of our donors.”

Beth McCarthy, Chair of the Foundation Board of Directors added, “At a time when nonprofit organizations are forced to do more with less and the needs of our community members are ever increasing, we are proud to be able to walk the walk of fiscal responsibility. We truly appreciate the support of The Huntington National Bank in providing quality space in an optimal location.”

“The work of the Community Foundation is an essential building block toward achieving the visions of our communities,” said Rosalind Jaffe, Manistee Banking Office Manager, Huntington National Bank. “We are pleased to have the Foundation as a neighbor.”

The Manistee County Community Foundation office was located at 77 Spruce Street in Manistee, within the Kalcher, Vanderwal and Torrey, P.C., building. MCCF extends its appreciation to the firm for its long-time support of the Foundation.
