“WHAT IF?...”

MANISTEE AREA CANDIDATES SOUGHT FOR JUNE 17 AUDITION

Manistee, Michigan - Aspiring actors between the ages of 6 to 60 as well as yellow Labrador Retrievers need to act now to be considered for an audition in Manistee on June 17 for one of 14 roles in a feature film involving one of Manistee’s hottest new companies, 10 West Studios.

Pure Flix Entertainment and Jenkins-Entertainment, in association with 10 West Studios, are holding auditions for the feature film “What If?...”, which tells the story of one man’s unique opportunity to take the road less traveled.

In a heavenly turn of events, career-centered Ben Walker gets to experience where life could have led if he made a different decision years earlier.

“We’ve had overwhelming support from the people of Manistee and we look forward to involving as much of the community as possible in this film production,” said Matthew Tailford of 10 West Studios.

Fahey-Dreher Casting, West Michigan’s premier casting company, will be handling the Michigan casting for this film. Principle photography starts June 28th and will last for 15 days.

Those interested in being considered for an audition must email a resume, a current headshot or a recent high quality digital photo and contact information prior to June 17 to whatifcasting@gmail.com. Contact information must include phone numbers and an email address.

Fahey-Dreher Casting will contact selected applicants to participate in auditions on Wednesday June 17th at 10 West Studios (254 River Street, Manistee, MI 49660). Due to time constraints, Fahey-Dreher Casting will be unable to accept phone calls from applicants.

The casting company is seeking individuals to audition for the following roles:
